* The current AOC agreed that in the interests of continuity, all would serve through the 2013-2014 academic year.

The Accreditation Oversight Committee:
- Ensures that key initiatives identified as needed by the Accreditation Self Study Report are instituted, and that attention to them is given on a continuing basis, and not allowed to lapse.
- Identifies those responsible for carrying out campus responses to accreditation recommendations.
- Ensures accountability through requirement of documented progress reports.
