Honolulu Community College
Institutional Learning Outcomes

Graduates are able to effectively read, write, utilize computational methods, and articulate worldly views as gained through a rigorous Liberal Arts curriculum.

Graduates who earn an AA or AS degree are prepared to enter a four year institution and successfully complete the upper level curriculum.

Graduates who complete a technical program will be able to successfully perform the skills required by industry.